GAELIC BROUGHT TWO DAYS' MAIL

The O. & O. liner Gaelic came into port yesterday at 10:30 a. m., from San Francisco. The vessel met with moderate to strong south and southwesterly winds, but did not experience extremely rough weather. Two days' later mail was brought. The steamer left for Yokohama, Nagasaki, Manila and Hongkong at 6 p. m. yesterday.

Among her passengers were T. J. Owen, an officer of the Philippines Constabulary, en route to Manila; J. T. Forth is a mining man en route to Vladivostok to engage in mining; F. J. Bardens, the tea man of Kobe, is returning to his home; Henri Wegelin, a Frenchman, is touring the world; Hoe Sang, a Chinese merchant of Peru, is returning to his native land.

Chalmers Graham, who has been in Honolulu for many weeks, a guest at the Young Hotel, departed for Manila on the Gaelic.

The Gaelic carries 2000 tons of cargo for Manila, including 75,000 feet of lumber. She also has 2000 tons of flour and 700 bales of cotton.

HONOLULANS ARE COMING FROM TAHITI

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.-The oceanic Steamship Company's liner Mariposa arrived yesterday from Tahiti on schedule time and as usual looking like a well kept yacht. Among her passengers were a number of Honolulu people who went from the Islands to Tahiti and are making the return trip by way of San Francisco. They speak in glowing terms of the climate of Tahiti and, accustomed to tropical delights as their residence in he Hawaiian group has made them. they found much that was new and delightful on the other tropical isle. Of their stay at Papeete, of the days spent exploring Tahiti and of the smokeless, sootless trip to the mainland on the well appointed Mariposa, they talk of as something new and worth while in the outing line. J. Sumner was in charge of the Honolulu

DIVER SOUGHT

Diver Terrill returned on the Mauna Lot from Punaluu where he made an effort, without success, to locate a bag of coin which had been accidentally dropped overboard near the anchorage. The money was lost on a former trip of the Mauna Loa, and the diver went out on the vessel's last run. He searched all over the rocky, rugged floor in the places indicated by the ship's officers, but found no trace of the bag.

He came across an old, rust encrusted anchor, however, and this was brought up. It had lain there for about a dozen years.

Nebraskan Laid Up.

The American-Hawaiian steamer Nebraskan is lying at Greenwich street wharf awaiting orders from New York as to her future movements. Like the Nevadan, the Nebraskan was built specially for the trade between here and Hawaii, and upon arrival from New York a year ago was supplied with an oil burning plant. It is believed that she will be placed on the San Francisco and New York route. succeeding Chief Engineer Hough, who has accepted a position at Honolulu.-Chronicle.

Oceanic Gets Contract.

WELLINGTON, N. Z., Nov. 13 .- The House of Representatives has adopted resolutions renewing for three years the mail service with San Francisco, to subsidize a fortnightly and tri- you.' weekly serice between Vancouver and $100,000 a year, provided the trip from Vancouver is made in eighteen days.

Forecast for December 3-Light trades and fair weather. R. C. LYDECKER, Territorial Meteorologist.

Steamers Pennsylvania and Conemaugh, which have been chartered to load sugar at the Hawaiian Islands for the Atlantic coast, will carry cargoes of coal to the Islands from Nanaimo.

It was comparatively but a short time ago that the old rules of the English courts were in full force and vigor in the conservative State of South Carolina. Thus it was distinct-Bernard Mills has recently come out ly provided that each attorney and from New York to take the position counsellor while engaged in a trial of chief engineer on the Nebraskan, must wear "a black gown and coat." But on one occasion James L. Pettigrue, one of the leaders of the bar, appeared dressed in a light coat. "Mr. Pettigrue," said the Judge, "you have on a light coat. You cannot speak, sir." "Oh, your honor," Pettigrue replied, 'may it please the court, I conform to

"No, Mr. Pettigrue, you have on a and also authorizing the government light coat. The Court cannot hear

"But, your honor," insisted the law-New Zealand. The subsidy will be yer, "you misinterpret. Allow me to illustrate. The law says that a barrister must wear 'a black gown and coat,' does it not?" "Yes," replied the Judge.

> "And does your honor hold that both the gown and the coat must be black?" "Certainly, Mr. Pettigrue; certainly,

"And yet it is also provided by law," "Yes, yes," was the somewhat im-natient answer.

"And does the court hold," questioned Pettigrue, "that the sword must be cocked as well as the hat?" "Eh-er-h'm," mused his honor,
